

BRIDGE COURSE

YEAR 2023 – 2024

Bridge course for I B.Com (2023-24 Batch) was organized by Department of Commerce from 8th August 2023 to 11th August 2023. The session started with the session on the topic Fundamental of accounting by Mr. Pavan Kumar. During his sessions Principles. Concepts, Conventions.

Accounting Process. Depreciation, Final Accounts, Meaning were discussed. This session helped the students to get an insight on the above topics and concepts. This followed by the session of Mr Kuriakose Paul in which he gave students the ideas and the concepts of Soft Skills that they needed, some of the major soft skills that are very necessary were also discussed in those sessions. Dr. Y Jayakrishna took session on Introduction to Income Tax. History, Legal Frameworks, and the Types of Taxes were discussed in the session. The session on Essentials of Accounting was delivered by Mr. Robin Shaji in which he discussed the Basic Accounting Principles and the Accounting Practices. Head Of the Department Dr. T Sivagami took over the session with the topic Management Principles, where she also dealt with the Functions, Scope of Management and also the Difference between Management and Administration. Ms Alphonsa Benny gave the students insight on the Fundamentals of Banking in her sessions. She gave the basic ideas of Banking. Types of Banks, Accounts, Phase History. Session on Logistics as a career option was undertaken by Mr Jose Francis, this session provided an opportunity to the students to gain Knowledge in Logistics and its various opportunities. This session was very informative and inspiring one for the logistics aspirants. Beauty of Marketing was handled by Ms. Vinduja Vijayan, where she shared the Concepts on Marketing Mix and Marketing activities. The session on Stock Market as a Career was handled by Ms. Josna Ann Johnson that gave the students a brief idea about the Stock Market and the various Investment Options, IPO's and how they can start investing or trade in stock markets etc.

The above mentioned faculties continued their sessions on the days that followed and the bridge course was concluded on 11th Aug 2023 after the last session by Mr. Robin Shaji with his lecture on the topic Essentials of Accounting.

BRIDGE COURSE

Academic year 2022- 23

Bridge Course for I B.Com General and Logistics (2022-23 Batch) was organized by Department of commerce from 1st September 2022 to 3 September 2022.

The session was started with the session on topic Fundamental of accounting by Ms Vinduja Vijayan. During her sessions Principles, Concepts, Conventions, Accounting Process, Depreciation, Final Accounts, Meaning were discussed. This session helped the students to get an insight on the above topics and concepts. The session on Stock Market as a Career was handled by Ms. Josna Ann Johnson that gave the students a brief Idea about the Stock Market and the various Investment Options, IPO's and how they can start Investing or trade in stock markets etc. Session on Logistics as a career option was undertaken by Mr Jose Francis, this session provided an opportunity to the students to gain Knowledge in Logistics and its various opportunities. This session was very informative and inspiring one for the logistics aspirants. The session on Essentials of Accounting was delivered by Head of the Department Dr I Sivagami in which she discussed the Basic Accounting Principles and the Accounting Practices. Mr Robin Shaji took over the session with the topic Management Principles, where he also dealt with the Functions, Scope of Management and also the Difference between Management and Administration. This followed by the session of Mr Kuriakose Paul in which he gave students the ideas and the concepts of Soft Skills that they needed, some of the major soft skills that are very necessary were also discussed in those sessions.

Financial Management is one of the important skill and the subject that students should know about and the session on the same was taken by Ms Ashlyn Lynn Joseph, where she conveyed thoughts on Types of Finance, Finance Manager, Financial Planning etc. Ms Mevi Varghese gave the students insight on the Fundamentals of Banking in her sessions. She gave the basic ideas of Banking, Types of Banks, Accounts, Phase History. Ms Jisa Babu took a session on Introduction to Income Tax History, Legal Frameworks, and the Types of Taxes were discussed in the session. Beauty of Marketing was handled by Ms Alphonsa Benny where she shared the Concepts on Marketing Mix and Marketing activities.

The above mentioned faculties continued their sessions on the days that followed and the bridge course was concluded on 3 Sept 2022 after the last session by Ms Josna Ann Johnson with her lecture on the topic Stock Market as a Career.

BRIDGE COURSE

Academic Year 2021 – 2022

The Department of Commerce conducted Bridge Course for the First Semester B Com students from September 24 to September 28 2021.

The topic Career planning was handled by Ms Ashly Lynn Joseph. Assistant Professor, department of Commerce The topic provides an insight about various career opportunities after graduation. The topic Fundamentals of Commerce was handled by Ms Josna Ann Johnson, Assistant Professor. Department of Commerce The session provides knowledge about the various aspects in the field of commerce. The topic Self Confidence was handled by Ms. Mevi Varghese. Assistant Professor department of Commerce. The topic and session helped the students to evaluate themselves and identify their strengths and weakness The topic Basic Accounting was handled by Ms. Alphonsa Benny. Assistant Professor, department of Commerce The session gave the students insight to the fundamentals that would help the students to attend the accounting classes with ease. The topic Positive Thinking was handled by Mr. Robin Shaji Assistant Professor, department of Commerce The topic helped the students to handle different situations and think positively.

